IOWA STATE vs. KANSAS STATE

Coach: Greg McDermott

Coach: Frank Martin

February 6th, 2009 1:00 PM

Interesting Facts:

WHY PINK!?!? Today's Pink-Out is in honor of breast cancer awareness...Head Coach Greg McDermott's wife and Graduate Assistant Brian Peterson's Mother are both breast cancer survivors.

The Cyclones have not been victorious against Kansas State in 3 seasons. They look to snap that six game losing streak this afternoon against the Wildcats.

Forward Craig Brackins is averaging 18.0 points in four games vs. KSU...he is shooting 89.5 percent (17-19 FT) from the free-throw line in his career vs. the Wildcats.

In ISU's last four wins (Houston, North Dakota State, Nebraska, Colorado) the opposing team has had the final shot at the end of regulation or in overtime to win or tie the game.

Kansas State has four players averaging double digits (Jacob Pullen, Denis Clemente, Curtis Kelly, and Dominique Sutton) they are led by Pullen and Clemente who average 19 and 15 points per game, respectively.
